P. D. PLYMALE IS DEAD AT 79

Prentice D. Plymale, 79, of Kenova Route 1, member of an early Wayne County family, died last night at 7:40 P. M. in a Huntington hospital.

During the early part of his life he served as deputy sheriff of Wayne County and was a prominent farmer, stockman and civic leader. He was largely instrumental in the establishment in 1909 of Central Graded School now Buffalo Graded School, and Buffalo High School in 1914. He was a member of the Westmoreland Methodist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. George Burgess of Wayne and Mrs. Samuel T. Haws of Kenova Route 1; five sons, Russell C. Plymale of Huntington, Norton E. Plymale of Clay, W. Va., Donald P. Plymale of Shoals, Rexford P. Plymale of Charleston and Drexel G. Plymale of Boston; three sisters, Miss Betha Plymale, Mrs. Dollie B. McQuinn and Mrs. W. E. McQuinn all of Huntington; a brother, W. E. Plymale of Kenova Route 1; a sister-in-law, Miss Emma Dixon of Kenova Route 1, and seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. His wife died December 28, 1944.

The body is at the Reger Funeral Home.

The Fraleys

By Andrew Washington
Fraleys,
Rt. 1 Huntington

I live on the Price's Creek Road leading to Wayne from Huntington, 8 miles from C. R.

I was born March 29, 1875, my great grandparents were John Fraley of Chuck River Valley, Tazewell Co., Va. My great gr. mother was _____

_____? I knew it further back, but I and my brother had fires and got our things burned. He had a large family of 10 or 12 —

George, James, William, Stephen, Nathaniel, Jane Edith, and Elizabeth, and others.

My grandfather Stephen F. was the only one that came here. My grandmother was Sally Hobbs of the same section.
She was a sister to James Hobbs, and Arthur Hobbs (youngest) who came here. A sister of Sally Hobbs married James Donahoe, father of William Donahoe, Joe, Alex Donahoe, & others. Her name was Nancy Jane.

Stephen Fraley

m. Sally Hobbs

They lived at Prestons-burg, Ky., and later went to Maysville where he staid a couple years.
He was a lawyer & was said to be a smart man. I was told this by my grandfather, Morris Gilkerson, grand father of Bill Clay's wife. When they came back from Maysville, they settled on what was later called
Fork of Birch Fork, about about 10 miles up Birch Fork, from East Lynn.

Jan. 23, 1930.

Stephen Fraley's family:

Jane, Jim, Nancy Ann, Serena, John, Edith, William, Elizabeth, probably all

Jane m. Oliver Mills They lived on Left Fork, about half way bet.
East Lynn and Wayne.
They had about
boys & one girl:

Tom, Jim, Kim, Lam-
